FOREWORD

Fairness and transparency in establishment matters is the key of success in Human Resource Management in any organization. Settlement of various issues like inter-se seniority based on rules/ regulations reduces the conflicts within the organization.

The Chandigarh Housing Board took initiative and finalized seniority lists of all its cadre/posts, after inviting and settling all claims & objections. This has resulted in filling of most of the vacant promotional posts.

I am happy that the updated final seniority lists have been compiled in a booklet form and being distributed.

I appreciate the efforts to the officials, who have taken the initiative for its compilation and updation.

(Manoj Parida, IAS)
Adviser to the Administrator,
U.T.– cum – Chairman,
Chandigarh Housing Board.

MESSAGE

It is a matter of great satisfaction that the Chandigarh Housing Board has updated the seniority list of its employees. Publication of the updated seniority list in a booklet form will go a long way and there would be more transparency in promotions and other service matter. A copy of this booklet will be given to each officer/official and will also be uploaded on the website of the Board. Now the employees will be better equipped to protect their legitimate claims.

The basis of this compilation is the final seniority list as on 01.09.2020 released vide letter No.HB(S)/EA-I/2020/1780 dated 14.09.2020. Though due care has been taken in updating the seniority list, yet the possibility of mistakes, discrepancies and errors cannot be ruled out. Further, the booklet can be a guiding book only and it cannot replace the official record about seniority. Finally the official record about the inter-se-seniority, date of appointment and other details will prevail.

I place on record my appreciation for the hard work of the officers/officials of all ranks, especially from the Administrative Section, in updating and compiling the seniority list.

(Yashpal Garg, IAS)
Chief Executive Officer,
Chandigarh Housing Board
Chandigarh

(A) Achievements of Chandigarh Housing Board during the year 2019 and 2020.

- 1. Inauguration of Maloya Complex: Chandigarh Housing Board constructed 4960 small flats at Maloya-I for the rehabilitation of slum dwellers under JNNURM (BSUP). Maloya Complex was inaugurated on 03.03.2019 by the Hon'ble Governor cum Administrator, with the infrastructural facilities such as community centre, Janj Ghar, LD System alongwith 11 KV Sub-Station, Bus queue Shelters, Porta Cabins for running shops of daily needs etc. More than 2500 families have already been shifted to these flats.
- 2. Online payment facility provided to all the allottees for payment of various type of charges and penalties. The monthly online collection has reached upto Rs.75 lacs within one year of its introduction.
- 3. Introduction of E-office Module: The E-office Module of NIC has been successfully implemented in all the branches of Chandigarh Housing Board. Now physical movement of files is allowed only as an exception. Since notes/documents cannot be altered/removed from E-files, there is no scope of any tampering with available records which facilitates transparency and efficiency in decision making process.
- 4. Movement of Migrant Labour, Pilgrims, Tourists, Students and other persons during COVID 19 Lockdown: The Chandigarh Administration made relevant arrangements to ensure comfortable and safe journey of these stranded persons to their respective places. Two holding centres were set up for medical screening and issuance of rail tickets before boarding of these persons in the Shramik Special Trains. The Chandigarh Housing Board in association with other departments/organisations smoothly sent about 45,000 stranded persons to their places.

(B) Welfare Activities for the CHB Employees:

Chandigarh Housing Board is providing the Welfare Fund Facility to the employees of Chandigarh Housing Board on the following occasions:

- 1. Rs.11,000/- on the Marriage of Daughter.
- 2. Rs.50,000/- as Financial Assistance to the family of the deceased employee.
- 3. Rs.15,000/- for the retirement party on attaining the age of superannuation.
